

ECONOMIC SOCIETY OF AUSTRALIA
Economic Papers
Copyright Assignment Form

Please read the notes overleaf. Then complete parts A and B of this form, sign and return one to the editor, keeping a copy for yourself. If you do not own the copyright to your article, please complete Part A and get the copyright holder to complete and sign Part C.

Part A

Name and address of Author:

Title of Article

In consideration of the publication of my contribution in the above journal, I hereby warrant:

- (a) that in the case of joint authorship I have been authorised by all co-authors to sign this agreement on their behalf, and references to the singular shall include the plural as appropriate;
- (b) that this article is the author(s)' original work, and that the article in its final form has not been previously published elsewhere, either in printed or electronic format, and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere;
- (c) that this article contains no violation of any existing copyright or other third party right or any material of an obscene, libellous or otherwise unlawful nature, and that I will indemnify and keep indemnified the Editor, Economic Papers, The Economic Society of Australia against all claims and expenses (including legal costs and expenses) arising from any breach of this warranty and the other warranties on my behalf in this agreement;
- (d) that I have obtained permission for publication in printed and electronic format and acknowledged the source of any illustrations, diagrams or other material included in the article of which I am not the copyright owner.

Signed _____ Date _____

Part B

In consideration of the publication of my article in the above journal, I with full title guarantee hereby assign to The Economic Society of Australia the entire present and/or future copyright in the article throughout the world, including the right to communicate the article in any form and in any language and for the full term of such copyright including any extensions, renewals, revisions and revivals together with all accrued rights of action.

Signed _____ Date _____

Part C

Name and address of current copyright holder (if not the author)

The copyright holder hereby grants the Economic Society of Australia non-exclusive rights to deal with requests from third parties as specified overleaf and to publish the article in the above journal in any format throughout the world (including the right to communicate the article without limitation on optical disc, transmission over the internet and other communications networks, and in any other electronic form).

Signed _____ Date _____

*Please return one signed copy of this form to The Editor, Economic Papers
Professor Harry Clarke, Department of Economics and Finance, La Trobe University, Melbourne 3086*

Economic Papers

Notes on the Assignment of Copyright

- 1 The journal's policy is to acquire copyright for all contributions. There are two reasons for this:
 - (a) ownership of copyright by one central organisation tends to ensure maximum international protection against infringement;
 - (b) it also ensures that requests by third parties to reprint a contribution, or part of it, are handled efficiently and in accordance with a general policy which is sensitive both to any relevant changes in international copyright legislation and to the general desirability of encouraging the dissemination of knowledge.
- 2 The author retain his or her moral rights in the article, including the right to be identified as the author whenever and wherever the article is published, under the terms of the Australian Copyright Act, 1968.
- 3 In assigning your copyright you are not forfeiting your rights to use your contribution elsewhere. This you may do after obtaining written permission from the Economic Society of Australia (only withheld in exceptional circumstances) provided that the journal is acknowledged as the original source.
- 4 It is understood that in some cases copyright will be held by the contributor's employer (for instance the Government). If so, the journal requires non-exclusive permission to deal with requests from third parties.
- 5 In addition to reproduction in conventional printed form, your article may be stored electronically (e.g. for inclusion in a document delivery service or an online version of the journal). Your assignment of copyright signifies your agreement to the journal making arrangements to include your paper in such document delivery services and electronic journal databases.
- 6 By signing this form you certify that your contribution is your original work, has not been published before and is not being considered for publication elsewhere; that you have obtained permission for and acknowledged the source of any excerpts from other copyright works; that to the best of your knowledge your paper contains no statements which are libelous, unlawful or in any way actionable and that you have informed any co-authors of the terms of this agreement and are signing on their behalf.